WHITLEY BAY PANTOMIME SOCIETY

The National Operatic and Dramatic Association
N.O.D.A. serving amateur theatre since 1899
"What is N.O.D.A.?"

The Association was founded in 1899 "to protect and advance the interests of operatic and dramatic art and of societies engaged therein. Today N.O.D.A. has a membership of some 2,300 amateur societies and 3,000 individual enthusiasts throughout the United Kingdom, staging musicals, operas, plays, concerts and pantomimes in a wide variety of performing venues, ranging from the country's leading professional theatres to tiny village halls.

Whatever the age of the participant, whatever the onstage or offstage talent they have to offer, they are involved in Amateur Theatre for the love of it. Those appearing will have given many hours to prepare and rehearse their contribution. The stage crew are vital to bringing the creative process alive on stage whilst the committee members and front of house staff all contribute so much in the challenge of staging a production. Each production created becomes a true community project.

N.O.D.A. has been involved in a Summer School since 1949 the aim being to offer training in as many aspects of the Amateur Theatre Arts as possible over the years; the week long residential school is held each August. With a National Conference, Annual Area Conference, Workshops, Seminars, the publication of a quarterly National News and the Magazines, the National Operatic and Dramatic Association provides a National Network of Services for all areas of Amateur Theatre in the United Kingdom.

For further details please contact N.O.D.A., NODA House, 58-60 Lincoln Road, Peterborough PE1 2PZ. www.noda.org.uk

Whitley Bay Pantomime Society is proud to have been a long standing member of N.O.D.A. and greatly value the support and advice received. Welcome to all our Friends in N.O.D.A. who are attending performances of "Jack and the Beanstalk" this week: especially our Regional Councilor Fred Piggford and his wife Kate

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Once again it's Panto time but this year we welcome you to the People's Theatre. This is the temporary home of the Whitley Bay Pantomime Society whilst the Playhouse is having major alterations carried out.

For this "away" production we are performing 'Jack and the Beanstalk' featuring Daisy, our performing cow, who is sold for a handful of beans. The show also features a magic beanstalk that grows and grows until it reaches! Well you will have to watch to find out what happens.

Thank you for supporting us at the People's. We do appreciate it.
Now sit back and enjoy.

Jack (Search)

Jack is a popular name, this was originally the pet-name or nick-name for people called John.

It came from the Middle Ages and was made up from Jan and king which became Jackin and Jack, as this word 'Jack' has become more popular it can be found in use in the English language nearly every day.

It has come to describe some famous catch-phrases such as 'Jack Tar' for sailor, 'Jack of all trades', 'Jack the lad'. Also it names an item such as a Jack for changing tyres and to name some animals (Jackdaw, Jackass, Jack Rabbit).

So common is the word, in fact, that the grid has lots of JACKs. How many can you find?

Panto, PC-style

Scenics from a pantomime for our times: Jack and the Beansprout. "Oh, I am a poor but honest vegetarian lady and I have decided I cannot look after our dear cow any longer. Jack, my son, can you find Daisy a new home?"
 "Oh yes I can."
 "Oh yes you can."
 "Oh yes I can."
 "Oh yes, anyone can do anything if they set their mind to it."
 On the way to the market (accompanied by a responsible adult) Jack meets a man who runs a farm for endangered species of cattle. "I will give you a bag of gold for your cow," he says. "I am not interested in gold," Jack replies. "Just give me five organic aduki beans instead."
 Jack's mother is very pleased with him when he gets home and plants the beans. Next day one of them has grown a huge sprout. "Hurrah," cries Jack, "now I can climb the beansprout and reach out the hand of friendship to that poor, lonely, differently-sized person up there." And the differently-sized person says: "Fee, fi, fo, fum! How very kind of you to come."
